Hi.

My name is Natalie, and I will be leading this recitation.

We will review hierarchical and k-means clustering techniques and apply them to segment gray scale images-- in particular, MRI brain images.

Then we will conclude by overviewing all the analytics tools we have seen so far in this class to prepare for the class competition.

Let's get started.